

Tennessee Extension Internship Program: ANR/CED Giles County (X2537)
10-week Summer Internship

DATE May 21, 2025 – July 30, 2025

Position Summary

This internship will provide field-training opportunities for undergraduate and/or graduate students interested in agricultural Extension work and activities. The intern will work in the Giles County Extension Office, Pulaski, TN at the University of Tennessee. Prior to starting the internship, interns will participate in a day-long orientation to familiarize them with Tennessee Extension Programs in ANR.

Job Description

Interns will gain hands-on work experience while exploring a career in Extension. Interns will study, observe, and participate in a county Extension program under the direction and supervision of experienced Extension Agents. Intern will have the opportunity to develop county-based Agriculture curriculum for adult and youth audiences. Supervision and coordination of daily activities while in the county is the responsibility of the County Extension Agent. As with any position, it is expected that an intern is able to get to and from work each day. Generally, interns ride with Extension agents and specialists during significant work-related travel and therefore do not receive a travel budget allotment.

Responsibilities

- Assist with implementation of and collect data from county research test plots.
- Help facilitate and provide support for local, multi-county, and regional youth livestock events.
- Make farm/site visits along with County ANR agent.
- Attend local Master Gardner events and meetings.
- Meet and network with local county stakeholders and community partners.
- Assume other responsibilities as assigned.

Qualifications

- Candidate must be enrolled in a college of agriculture, natural resources, environmental science or closely related major.
- Preference given to those that have completed at least 50 percent of the required course work for the Bachelor's degree with a cumulative GPA of 2.7 (on a 4.0 scale) or higher and has at least one more semester to complete after the summer internship has ended. Preference will be given to students presently enrolled in the University of Tennessee, Tennessee State University, any other university or college in Tennessee, or to a student resident of Tennessee enrolled elsewhere. Preference will also be given to those with Extension experience (i.e. former 4-H member, etc.). However, all eligible applicants will be considered.
- Must reside in, or live within a reasonable commuting distance of the assigned location. Housing not provided.

- Must have own transportation to and from work.
- Must present a written and oral report of the project accomplishments and training experience at the end of the internship.

For best consideration, applications for the internship should be submitted by April 4, 2025.

Applications received after this date will be reviewed if all slots have not been filled.
